The WANT OF ROOM, again obliges us to defer the Publication of the Letter received laſt Week, from A MEMBER OF THE ASSEMBLY AND SIGNER OF THE RESOLUTIONS, as well as ſeveral ADVERTISEMENTS and Articles of INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

WILLIAM-Henry Drayton having, for ſome time paſt, taken great pains to decipher the characters of ſeveral reſpectable perſons, and in a ſtile peculiar to himſelf; the MECHANICKS little expected, that he would have ſtooped ſo low, as to confer any of his favours on them, who, in his opinion, are every way ſo much his inferiors. But as he has deigned to beſtow ſome compliments on them, in point of good manners, they ought not to fail paying their reſpects to him, in their own plain and homely language, for it cannot be expected they ſhould know how, to convey their thoughts, in the polite and courtly manner of ſuch a well-bred gentleman.

The gracious Giver of all good things, has been pleaſed to beſtow a certain principle on mankind, which properly may be called common ſenſe: But, though every man hath a natural right to a determined portion of this ineffable ray of the Divinity, yet, to the misfortune of ſociety, many perſons fall ſhort of this moſt neceſſary gift of God; the want of which cannot be compenſated by all the learning of the ſchools.

The Mechanicks pretend to nothing more, than having a claim from nature, to their ſhare in this ineſtimable favour, in common with Emperors and Kings, and, were it ſafe to carry the compariſon ſtill higher, they would ſay with William-Henry Drayton himſelf; who, in his great condeſcention, has been pleaſed to allow us a place amongſt human beings: But whether it might have happened from an ill conſtruction of his ſenſory, or his upper works being damaged by ſome rough treatment of the perſon who conducted his birth, we know not; however ſo it is, that, to us, he ſeems highly defective in this point, whatever exalted notions he may entertain of his own abilities.

By attending to the dictates of common ſenſe, the Mechanicks have been able to diſtinguiſh between RIGHT and WRONG; in doing which indeed no great merit is claimed, becauſe every man's own feelings will direct him thereto, unleſs he obſtinately, or from a pertinacious opinion of his own ſuperior knowledge, ſhuts his eyes, and ſtoickally ſubmits to all the illegal encroachments that may be made on his property, by an ill-deſigning and badly-informed miniſtry.

Mr. Drayton may value himſelf as much as he pleaſes, on his having had a liberal education beſtowed on him, tho' the good fruits thereof have not hitherto been conſpicuous either in his public or private life: He ought however to know, that this is not ſo abſolutely neceſſary to thoſe, who move in the low ſphere of mechanical employments. But ſtill, though he pretends to view them with ſo contemptuous and oblique an eye, theſe men hope, that they are in ſome degree uſeful to ſociety, without preſuming to make any compariſons between themſelves and him, except with regard to love for their country; for he has amply ſhewn, that an attachment of this ſort is not one of his ruling paſſions. Nor does he appear in the leaſt to have regarded the peace and good order of that community of which he is a member; otherwiſe he would not wilfully, and without any cauſe, have knocked his head againſt ninety-nine out of every hundred of the people, not only in this province, but of all North-America, not one of whom bore him any malice, nor yet do, though they may entertain what opinions they pleaſe, with reſpect to his want of patriotiſm, from his having proved a Felo de ſe in that point.

After an avowal of principles, incompatible with the eſſential rights of freemen under the Engliſh conſtitution, ſurely, no pariſh in this province, will ever think it prudent, to truſt their intereſts in ſuch hands, for the time to come? Beſides, who can ſay he ever ſhewed any capacity for buſineſs, when he was honoured with a ſeat in the Houſe of Aſſembly?

The Aſſociators never aſſumed, or pretended to aſſume, any right, over the judgments of other men, leaving every individual to ſign the agreement, or not, as he pleaſed. How then could it enter into Mr. Drayton's head, to conjure up ſo many phantoms of danger, to thoſe who might think proper to decline ſubſcribing to the reſolutions, with reſpect either to their perſons, liberties, or properties? By doing which, he has out-quixoted the moſt redoubtable Knight of La Mancha himſelf; for he has knowingly and deſignedly miſconſtrued the actions of well-meaning men, that he might enjoy the unmanly ſatisfaction of hacking and hewing their characters to ſlinders. In this, however, he has failed, notwithſtanding his induſtry, and an oſtentatious ſhew of learning, by ſpouting out ſcraps of Latin at every turn, and making a moſt illiberal application of ſuch vulgar and low words, as would better become the high-bred dames of Billingſgate or Drury, than the polite Mr. Drayton. In no reſpect therefore, will Mr. Drayton's conduct bear a compariſon with the valorous Don Quixote's; for, though the latter hero was oftentimes almoſt as much deceived by his own fanciful whims, as this our countryman has been miſled by the freakiſh caprices of his own vacant head, yet the motives for the Spaniſh Knight's were juſt and laudable, had they been real, and his language was always elegant and chaſte, his notions virtuous and ſublime, and perfectly correſpondent with the ſplendid deeds he thought himſelf bound to atchieve, as the protector and champion of virtue in diſtreſs.

Had the dreadful apprehenſions which Mr. Drayton only feigns, been well grounded; to take up a pen in defence of his country, would then have been highly meritorious. But as he ſtill writes in an abuſive way, not only in ſpite of truth, but in contradiction to the conviction of his own mind; we muſt take it upon us, to give him one word of advice, which is, that if he ſhould uſe the gooſe quill again, in order to entertain the public, he would carefully avoid rude and ſcurrilous expreſſions; for, if truth only be his aim, it ſtands in no need of coarſe and uncivil language to eſtabliſh it.

Mr. Drayton may be aſſured, that ſo far from being aſhamed of our trade, we are in the higheſt degree thankful to our friends, who put us in the way of being inſtructed in them; and that we bleſs God for giving us ſtrength and judgment to purſue them, in order to maintain our families, with a decency ſuitable to their ſtations in life. Every man is not ſo lucky as to have a fortune ready provided to his hand, either by his own or his wife's parents, as has been his lot; nor ought it to be ſo with all men; and Providence accordingly hath wiſely ordained otherwiſe, by appointing the greateſt part of mankind, to provide for their ſupport by mutual labour; and we will be bold to ſay, that ſuch are the moſt uſeful people in a community---as has been lately publicly acknowledged even by William Wragg, planter.

Mr. Drayton has thought fit to take ſome freedoms with us; and therefore we ſhall take the liberty to aſk him, whether he really can claim any merit from his poſſeſſing an eſtate not obtained, or obtainable, by his own induſtry? And we further enquire of him, whether, if he had his bread to get by the labour of either his head or hands, he is qualified for any one ſort of buſineſs that requires knowledge or ſkill to conduct it? He might probably earn a ſcanty pittance, was he to hire himſelf as a packhorſeman in the Indian trade, ſerving ſome Mechanic as a labourer, or, if he behaved well, he might drive a cart or dray about the ſtreets of Charles-Town; but ſurely, he could neither pretend to build a houſe to ſhelter himſelf from the weather, nor ſoal his own ſhoes as they ought to be done; though we will not deny, but he might contrive to help himſelf to a ſlice of a dead ox, when ſharp ſet.

Mr. Drayton may not perhaps know how many friends he has amongſt the Mechanicks. But it is fit he ſhould be informed, that one of thoſe men has, in part, the diſpoſal of ſeveral Brick Buildings behind the Barracks, to an apartment in one of which they think he has an abſolute title, on account of the preſent unſound ſtate of his mind; and he ſhall have one of them too, in preference to all other perſons who may apply: None who have any connection with him, need be under apprehenſions about the expence of his lodging or diet; for he ſhall ſit rent-free, and be furniſhed with ſtraw and other neceſſaries ſuited to people in his deplorable circumſtances; but he muſt be debarred of pen, ink, and paper (dangerous implements in unſkilful hands) leſt they ſhould aggravate his diſorder: However, he will be allowed to amuſe himſelf with making and wearing civet crowns of ſtraw, for having ſaved his fellow-ſubjects from deſtruction.

We are, Yours, &c.
MECHANICKS of the COMMITTEE.

October 3d, 1769.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

THE Ladies are certainly much obliged to the PEDEE OECONOMIST, for recommending the Diſtaff and Spinning Wheel to them: And he may be aſſured, they would follow his Advice with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, provided his own Sex would be made to co-operate with them; in bringing about a general Plan of OECONOMY.

But Women think, it would tend to but very little good Purpoſe, were they to card and ſpin, whilſt the Men are racking their Brains, in contriving how to diſſipate their Time and Money, in what they call PARTIES OF PLEASURE.

There is not one Night in the Week, in which they are not engaged with ſome Club or other at the Tavern, where they injure their Fortunes by GAMING in various Ways, and impair their Healths by the intemperate Uſe of Spirituous Liquors and keeping late Hours, or rather ſpending whole Nights, ſometimes, in theſe diſgraceful and ruinous Practices, ſo that nothing more remains about them of the human Species, but that they ſtill retain the Form of Man.

Another Sort of Gaming alſo prevails to the greateſt Exceſs, which is what they call HORSE-RACING: By which, inconceivably large Sums are loſt; yet, ſo fond are the Men of waſting Money in this Manner, that for many Months before the Day of Trial comes, they promote this Way of draining their own Pockets, with the moſt anxious Diligence, though their flattering Hopes may be baffled by the moſt trifling Accidents, either to the Horſe or Rider; and even ſuppoſing they ſhould ſometimes win the Bet, in this Caſe the Honour of it is wholly due to the Horſe, for they who lay the Wagers, can have no Claim to it.

Nay, further, the Men will even riſk large Sums on the Chance-Stroke of a Cock's Heel: So addicted are they to extravagant Diſſipations, which they falſely call Pleaſure.

The Reverſe of all theſe Prodigalties is the Caſe with Women; whoſe utmoſt Expectations are, to go ſometimes to a Ball or an Aſſembly, or to ſpend a few Hours in the Evening with an Acquaintance or two, after having carefully attended the Concerns of their Families in the preceding Part of the Day. Theſe innocent Amuſements only ſerve to relax their Minds for a ſmall Time, and alſo to ſupport a friendly Sociality between Friends; nor are ſuch Meetings ever attended with any Expence that can hurt one's Fortune; whereas the Men throw away Hundreds, nay Thouſands of Pounds, in one Evening, without the leaſt Remorſe, however their helpleſs Infants may ſuffer for the future, by their preſent Imprudencies.

Now, I aſk you, Mr. Timothy, whether our Huſbands, who, according to the Rank they ſtand in, ought to be wiſer than we are (at leaſt, they would willingly be thought ſo) ſhould not ſhew us better EXAMPLES of OEconomy, than many of them have hitherto done? which if they really will do, we faithfully promiſe to CLOATH THEM with the Work of our own Hands.

But, till ſuch a Reformation is brought about by our Superiors, we ſhall not think ourſelves obliged to wear out our Fingers, either by carding or ſpining. You will therefore be pleaſed to inform them, Mr. Timothy, that to wear a Homeſpun Coat only, will never paſs, with Women, for a Mark of thorough Amendment, unleſs they give us better Proofs thereof than this paltry outſide Shew of it.

FERRY,

to carry PERSONS and HORSES over to HOBCAW, or any other Place, on that Side of the River, and has provided proper Boats and Hands, for that Purpoſe. As there has never been ſuch a Thing in Charles-Town, and, as he has had great Encouragement, from Numbers of People, to undertake ſuch a Thing, hopes it may be of ſome Utility to the Public, as he is determined to be as aſſiduous as poſſible in the Buſineſs, and thereby hopes to meet with Encouragement, merit Approbation, and give general Satisfaction, as he will endeavour to accommodate Perſons with a Boat and Hands, at a few Minutes Warning. He has reſerved the front Room in his Houſe, for Paſſengers to ſit down in, while the Boat is getting ready, that they may not be expoſed to wait on the Wharf, or walk up and down the Streets: If this Undertaking ſhould turn out to be of that Utility, which he hopes it may, the Subſcriber flatters himſelf, that, when the Honourable Houſe of Aſſembly meets again, they will take it into Conſideration, hear the Prayer of a Petitioner, and indulge him with an Eſtabliſhment. AND WHEREAS little Regard has been paid by the Treſpaſſers on the Black-River Barony, to our former Advertiſement, requeſting either Removal from the ſaid Land, or the immediate Purchaſe of the ſame: We now, for the laſt Time, inform all Perſons concerned, both on the Black-River, and Pedee Baronies, that unleſs they remove from, or obtain Title to, their ſeveral Poſſeſſions, either by Purchaſe or Leaſe, from us, on or before the firſt Day of December next, Action at Law will be then commenced againſt them: And, leſt it ſhould be imagined, that Circumſtances favourable to them, have hitherto prevented us from purſuing compulſive Meaſures, according to our former Notice, we think it proper to inform them, that the Death of Mr. FISHER, one of the Proprietors, and the Neceſſity of a Renewal of Letters of Attorney, were the only Obſtacles to the enforcement of our former Reſolutions, which Letters of Attorney are now tranſmitted to us. Charles-Town, Sept. 9*th*, 1769.

CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 5.

LAST Thurſday the Wind blew ſo hard here from N. to E. as to alarm the Inhabitants not a little; and between the Hours of 12 and 3 on Friday Morning, the Gale encreaſed, ſhifting to the different Points between N. E. and S. E. and became ſo violent, as to raiſe the moſt dreadful Apprehenſions of an Hurricane; but before 4 o'Clock the Wind ſuddenly and providentially ſhifted to N. and by 9 o'Clock to N. W. and the following part of the Day was quite calm and ſerene. During this Gale, ſome Damage was done to the ſmall Craft in the Harbour, but all the larger Veſſels rode it out without receiving any conſiderable Damage; moſt of the Houſes in Town, eſpecially thoſe built of Brick upon the Bay, were terribly ſhaken; and many Trees, &c. were blown down. It is feared, that ſome Loſs has been ſuſtained in the Country, but we are moſt apprehenſive of great Damage being done to Shipping on the Coaſt, as the Gale came in from the Sea.

Capt. McLarty, who arrived here laſt Saturday, in three Days from Cape-Fear, received no other Damage in the above Gale than the Loſs of two of his Sails torn to Pieces. Laſt Thurſday, about 3 Leagues to the Eaſtward of this Bar, he ſpoke with the Ship James, John Trenham Maſter, from Grenada, and a Brigantine, one Foſter Maſter, out 8 weeks from Briſtol, both bound for Cape-Fear, all well on board. He gives us a moſt dreadful Account of the Effects of the Storm on the 7th and 8th paſt, throughout the Sea-Coaſt of North-Carolina; where innumerable Trees and many Houſes were blown down, whole Plantations deſtroyed, and great Damage done to the Shipping, particularly at Newbern, where 6 or 7 Veſſels are ſaid to have foundered at their Anchors; He adds, that all the Veſſels in Cape-Fear River, except one Sloop, were driven on Shore.

Captain Welch, who arrived here the ſame Day from Jamaica, informs us, that on the 21ſt paſt, in Lat. 26. 30. Long. 74. he met with a large Sloop's Maſt, the lower End ſtanding uppermoſt, and near twelve Feet above the Surface of the Water, which he ſtripped of all the ſtanding Rigging, Ties, Part of the Gaff and Foreſail, and a Cable and Anchor of about 400*lb.* hanging thereto. It ſeemed to have been lately carried away, but he could diſcover nothing of the Veſſel to which it had belonged.

Sunday laſt arrived here from Penſacola, the Diligence (temporary) Packet-Boat, commanded by Capt. Arthur Clark. By which there is a Confirmation of the Spaniards having taken Poſſeſſion of the Territory of New-Orleans, with upwards of 5000 Troops. It is added, that the Spaniards had deſired a Meeting with the Indians, near St. Mark's, on the 10th paſt; and that the French Inhabitants had moſtly removed to this Side of the Miſſiſippi. There is alſo a Confirmation of many Veſſels having been damaged at Jamaica, in a Storm on the 7th ult. but none loſt.

So large a Debarkation of Troops at New-Orleans, as above mentioned, at one Time, occaſions various Speculations. Some whimſical Politicians pretend to have diſcovered, that this is the firſt Movement towards the Execution of a General Plan for the Spaniards re-ſettling themſelves in Weſt-Florida at leaſt, whence His Majeſty's Troops have been not long ſince removed.

The ſame Day died, Mrs. Iſabella Wiſh, the Wife of Mr. John Wiſh.

The Uſe of Scarves and Gloves at Funerals, is now totally aboliſhed here---and ſcarce any but old Mourning is worn, by ſuch as uſe any.

The Ship Diamond, John Hill, Maſter (late Philipſon) from the Bay of Honduras, bound for London, got into Tybee laſt Monday ſe'nnight, very leaky. About 30 Leagues to the Southward of St. Auguſtine, Capt. Hill took up 10 Spaniards, who came off to him from a Palacre, that had loſt her Prow, and had ſix Feet Water in her Hold, which was laden with Cotton, Cocoa, and Hides, and bound from Carthagena for Cadiz. The Captain and 10 Seamen remained on board the Palacre.

The Schooner Cannon, of and from this Port, Charles Smyth, Maſter, bound for Eaſt-Florida, is alſo put into Georgia, having loſt her Rudder, and damaged her whole Cargo of Corn.

On Tueſday laſt put back, the Mary, Tranſport, Capt. James Gordon, which, with two others, having His Majeſty's 21ſt Regiment on board, ſailed from this Port the 8th paſt for St. Auguſtine; but on Friday the 15th, parted her Cable, off that Bar, was drove out to Sea, and ſo ſtrained in the Gale, as to ſpring a Leak. Laſt Thurſday Capt. Gordon met with another Gale, in which his Maſts, Sails and Rigging ſuffered ſo much, that he was at laſt obliged to bear away, without landing the Troops, for this Port. The Sally, Capt. Purſs, and the Harriot, Capt. Dawſon, (the two other Tranſports) were driven to Sea from off St. Auguſtine Bar, at the ſame Time with Capt. Gordon, but were ſeen fifteen Days ago, in Lat. 29. 36, not many Leagues from the Shore. ---Thurſday Afternoon. The Harriot Tranſport is juſt returned to this Port, very leaky, and otherwiſe damaged, after having made three fruitleſs Attempts to get to St. Auguſtine. Captain Dawſon ſaw many Pieces of Wreck on the Coaſt, and four Days ago ſeveral dead Bodies. The Sally has not been ſeen ſince the 19th paſt.

We have the Pleaſure to inform the Public, that the Gentlemen employed in making a Survey of the Sea-Coaſt and interior Parts of this whole Province, have ſo far completed that long-wiſhed-for and important Work, as to have already brought their Draughts to Town for the Inſpection of the Committee appointed by Act of Aſſembly for that Purpoſe; and that as ſoon as they have undergone that Inſpection, and received the Approbation of the General Aſſembly, Mr. Cook will embark for England, in order to have the Plates forthwith engraved and printed. Thoſe who have already ſeen the Survey, expreſs ſo much Satisfaction thereat, that there is no doubt that ingenious Performance will meet with due Encouragement.

On Tueſday there was a Meeting of the General Committee, by Adjournment, at Mr. Robert Dillon's. Having gone through ſome Buſineſs, they again adjourned to Tueſday the 17th Inſt.

At a General Meeting of the Charles-Town Library Society, holden Yeſterday, His Honour William Bull, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, &c. of this Province, was unanimouſly elected Preſident (in the Room of the Right Hon. Lord Charles-Greville Montagu, gone off the Province) and Gabriel Manigault, Eſq; Vice-Preſident.---The Alterations made in the old Rules were confirmed, and, with a new Catalogue of the Books, &c. ordered to be printed; and the Rev. Mr. Thomas Panting, preſent Maſter of the Free-School here, Charles-Cotesworth Pinckney, Eſq; and Mr. Iſaac Hayne, elected Members.
